Parish Bulletin

21st April, 2013

Kilcolman Principal

The Board of Management of Kilcolman National School has appointed Mébh Hennessy as Principal of the school. Mébh is a native of our parish and has taken up the post after the Easter break. The school is also celebrating its centenary year this year.

Ordination Day plans

Parishioners, including the Parish Assembly and the choirs, are busy preparing for the parish's historic milestone on Sat. June 1st when we host the Ordination to Priesthood of Rev Sean Crowley, Hollyhill, Ballineen, at Enniskeane Church at 12 noon and his First Mass on the day after, Sunday 2nd. at 7.30pm.

One of the elements of the planning which parishioners may wish to assist with is hospitality for Sean's fellow student priests and priests from around the country who will be attending. It would be appreciated if households can offer these accommodation during the weekend. (Fri/Sat/Sun nights.) If you have a spare room and would like to host a guest or two for the weekend, please contact Damian Mitchell, chair of our parish assembly, at 086 1610068 or damohhs@hotmail.com

Pastoral Area

The priests in our pastoral area are rotating which Masses they say and where this weekend within our pastoral area.

Priests and parish leadership groups are developing ways to help sustain ministry in our parishes into the future and this will require that priests will need to supply for one another more frequently. Fr.
Hayes is in Murragh parish this weekend and the Bandon priests will be saying three of the Masses in Enniskeane; (Fr.
Pat Walsh will say the fourth).

Exam Time Mass

The parish of Enniskeane/Desertserges extends an invitation to all parishioners to pray with and offer support to all people preparing for Exams at Enniskeane Parish Church on Sat May 4th, 2013 at 7.30pm. Enniskeane Youth Choir will sing at this Mass.

Holy Land Pilgrimage

Marian pilgrimages 9 day pilgrimage to the Holy Land departs Dublin on Oct 7th 2013. Bus provided from Timoleague.

Madden 086 3666514

The Permanent Diaconate

Bishop Buckley has announced that he is going to introduce the Permanent Diaconate in our diocese. A permanent deacon is ordained to serve as a deacon for life. It is open to married and single men alike. We will publish extracts from the Bishop's statement in the coming weeks.
