Parish Bulletin

26th May, 2013

Ordination of Sean Crowley

Our parish makes history next Saturday when Sean Crowley, Hollyhill, Ballineen, will be ordained a priest in our parish church.

It is a special blessing for Sean, his family, relatives and friends, as well as for our parish and our diocese. Sean will serve as a priest in our diocese.

The Ordination by Bishop Buckley takes place during a concelebrated Mass. In some respects, the liturgy resembles a marriage ceremony — in that the Rite of Ordination happens between the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

A few practical things:-

✚ Parking in the church grounds will be reserved for Sean's family and people with limited mobility. St. Mary's car park will be open.

The seats in the front half of the church will be reserved for Sean's family, relatives and concelebrants. The main aisle will be seated on a first-come basis.

✚ There will also be seating in a marquee beside the church where the ceremony will be relayed on TVs.

✚ The ceremony will also be relayed on the internet so that anyone with access to the internet, in any part of the world, can tune in. The link is:- www.ustream.com/channel/enniskeane

Sean's First Mass

Sean celebrates his First Mass in Enniskeane Church on Sun. 2nd at 7.30pm.

The above arrangements also apply.

After his First Mass, Fr. Sean will impart his First Blessing individually to people in the church.

Many thanks to all those who are helping with preparations.

Another Deacon

Best wishes to Rev Ben Hodnett, from the Cathedral Parish, Cork, who is ordained a Deacon this Sunday at Maynooth.

Hospitality at First Mass

Our parish is privileged to host Rev Sean Crowley's Ordination to Priesthood (June 1st at 12noon) and the celebration of his First Mass (June 2nd at 7.30pm). The Parish Assembly is arranging light refreshments for all who will attend the First Mass on Sunday June 2nd. Parishioners are invited to provide baking, snacks, or other items of food to accompany tea and coffee which will be served in the marquee after the First Mass. Members of the parish assembly will receive these items at the marquee from 5.30pm onwards on Sun 2nd. Thank you.
