Thought of the Day

"You may lose the people you love, you may lose the things you have. But no matter what happens, Never Lose Yourself!"

Mission is Urgent

'The joy of the Gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept his offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness. With Christ, joy is constantly born anew. Today vast numbers of people still do not know Jesus Christ and for this reason mission continues to be most urgent. The Church is missionary by nature and was born "to go forth".

World Mission Sunday is a celebration of grace and joy. Grace, because the Holy Spirit, sent by the Father, offers wisdom and strength. Joy, because Jesus Christ, the Father's Son supports and accompanies our missionary efforts. The joy experienced by Jesus leads me to offer you a bright jewel from Scripture which we find in the gospel of Luke (Lk 10:20-23)

The seventy-two disciples returned from proclaiming the Kingdom of God filled with joy. Joy is a dominant theme in this unforgettable first missionary experience. However, Jesus cautioned them to rejoice not so much for the power they had received to set people free from demons, but for the love they had received.

Let us pray through the intercession of Mary, that the Church may become a welcoming home for all peoples and a source of rebirth.' (Pope Francis)
