Supporting third-level students

Life in third-level colleges is very different to school! There are many opportunities, many challenges and many pressures. The Catholic Church has been a long-time supporter of students in colleges and other institutes through what is known as the college chaplaincies. The chaplaincies are staffed by teams of people that may include lay people, priests and religious sisters.

At UCC, the Chaplaincy is led by Fr. Tom Forde, who is a Capuchin priest and by Rev Marius O'Reilly, a deacon of our diocese who will be ordained to priesthood in November. The Chaplaincy is based in a building called Iona, on College Road. It operates on a drop-in basis where free cuppas are provided and a range of services and supports are available free of charge.

The Chaplaincy team at CIT is headed by Fr David McAuliffe, a priest of our diocese. For further details see www.facebook.com/cit.chaplaincy

Gospel Thoughts

The Gospel today tells us that the greatest commandment is love. In a speech given at the World Congress of the Lay Apostolate in October 1957, Giovanni Battista Montini (later Pope Paul VI), who was beatified last Sunday, explained that 'the secret of the lay apostolate is to know how to love ... those nearby and those afar; love our own country and those of others; love our friends and our enemies; love Catholics, Protestants, Anglicans, the indifferent; love Muslims, pagans, atheists ... love our own times, our modern civilisation, techniques, art, sport, our world ... let us love it with the heart of Christ.'
