Murragh & Templemartin Parish

Over the last three years the Parish Pastoral Council has been compiling a collection of stories & information about the one hundred and eleven men and women, born in the parish, who had religious vocations and went on to serve as missionaries. After many chats, emails & phonecalls, the book has finally come to fruition, and is an important record, spanning 3 centuries, acknowledging the sacrifices of these people & their families as well as the enormous contribution they made at home and in the 44 different countries they travelled to.

On Sun 23rd Nov at 4p.m. in the Parish Hall, Newcestown the book will be launched by Fr. Finbarr O'Halloran. It promises to be a lovely evening with refreshments served afterwards while you chat and also an opportunity to purchase the book. Everyone is very welcome to attend this event and we look forward to seeing you there.

First Holy Communion 2015

There are 56 boys and girls being enrolled this weekend in our parish to prepare for their First Penance and First Holy Communion in May 2015. This is a special year for them and for their families. The whole parish community is invited to pray for them. The boys and girls are asked to pray, too, to ask the Lord to help them to get to know God better.

Prayer

*God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change;
The courage to change the things I can
And the wisdom to know the difference*

My God, I hope in You for grace and glory because of Your mercy and Your power.
