Finance & Church Care

A meeting of the Parish Finance Committee along with the Castletown Church Care Committee at the Parochial House on Tues 17th at 8pm. Agenda: Response to Castletown Church proposals, feedback, and decide next steps.

Taxing time

For all who are self-assessed tax payers, these weeks are a drain on funds! No doubt a lot of money has left the parish in the past month on its way to Revenue and Government in Dublin. 146 of the households in our parish have made it possible to get some of their taxes back from Dublin and put it to use in the parish. Parishioners who contribute to the parish collections shouldn't have to pay tax on that money. A simple form (available on the parish website in the downloads section) just needs the parishioner's PPS number and their signature to authorise the parish to get some of the tax back. If you sent back the form already, thanks. It only needs to be updated once every five years.

In recent months, Revenue have refunded €13,807.88 of tax paid last year by parishioners. If you would like to have some of your income tax put to use locally and have not sent back the form, you can download it at www.enniskeaneparish.ie or contact the parish office for a blank copy.

Please support our young people who have committed and worked hard in this project – it promises to be an inspiring and uplifting concert of liturgical music.

Samaritan Volunteers

The Samaritans in Cork need more volunteers. Age, qualifications or previous experience are irrelevant. You just need a natural ability to listen and remain open minded. Contact recruitment@corksamaritans.ie
