Parish Bulletin

17th April 2016

Photographer of the Year & Photo exhibition.

Throngs of people flooded the BEDA hall (instead of the rain!) last Sunday to view the fantastic display of photographs taken by the youth of our parish. Standards were exceptionally high, as stated by the judges. This was reiterated by Brian Loughed, professional photographer & until recently, the photo editor of the Evening Echo. Results as follows:

Primary section (age 10 -> 12)

1st Katelyn O'Brien

2nd Emma Eady

Merits: Colm Sexton, Tommy Nolan

Molly O'Boyle Ronan Coughlan

Junior Section (age 13 -> 15)

1st Sinead Hurley

2nd Emma Crowley

Merit: Eibhlín Mangan

Senior section (age 16 -> 18)

1st Sarah Crowley

2nd Cathal Mangan

The overall Young Photographer of the Year, selected by Brian Loughed, went to Sinead Hurley who also won in her category.

In addition to this wonderful achievement by our youth, the parish, & beyond, had the privilege to view (and purchase) the most amazing exhibition of professionally framed photos by Fr. Tom Hayes. Proceeds were in aid of the Castletown Kenneigh Church refurbishment & thankfully purses were flowing freely by one & all, as were the teapots & buns in the kitchen!

Many thanks to all those who generously purchased & donated, to the BEDA, Scannell's pharmacy & O'Riordan's pharmacy, but a special thanks to all the children and young people who entered and supported this event. And last, but by no means least, thanks to Fr. Hayes for all his help, time & hard work, and obviously photos!!

Sales are still ongoing and we will update in the near future when all our homework is done!
