Sam Maguire Celebrations

Dunmanway has great plans for celebrating the 90th Anniversary of the Sam Maguire cup during 2018. From the launch on the 18th March with the Towns St Patricks Parade, to the close of the festival with a dinner dance in the Parkway on the 13th October we have lots and lots planned. Dramatisations of Sam Maguire's life, heritage walks, school tours, GAA events, book readings, traditional music sessions, commemorations, Artane boys band to name a few. In order to raise funds for the these events and publicising the celebrations we are holding a fundraising cake sale on Friday 26th January in the EURO BAR Dunmanway from 10 – 1. Your support, whether providing baking or joining us on the morning, would be greatly appreciated. Please spread the word.

Mission Sunday

In Oct a special collection was taken up in all Churches in aid of World Missions Ireland. The diocese of Cork and Ross collectively raised €82,518. The World Missions Ireland wish to thank everyone for their continuing generosity.

Recipe for a Happy New Year. . .

Take twelve fine, full-grown months; see that these are thoroughly free from old memories of bitterness, rancor and hate, cleanse them completely from every clinging spite; pick off all specks of pettiness and littleness; in short, see that these months are freed from all the past—have them fresh and clean as when they first came from the great storehouse of Time. Cut these months into thirty or thirty-one equal parts. Do not attempt to make up the whole batch at one time (so many persons spoil the entire lot this way) but prepare one day at a time.

Into each day put equal parts of faith, patience, courage, work (some people omit this ingredient and so spoil the flavor of the rest), hope, fidelity, liberality, kindness, rest (leaving this out is like leaving the oil out of the salad dressing— don't do it), prayer, meditation, and one well-selected resolution. Put in about one teaspoonful of good spirits, a dash of fun, a pinch of folly, a sprinkling of play, and a heaping cupful of good humor.

Diocesan Needs

Second collection will be taken up at all Masses this weekend. These collections are sent to the bishop for the running costs of the diocese and the expenses of the Irish Bishops Conference.
