Recently from a Church Gate Collection in our parish a total of €570 was collected by Hamilton High School in aid of Habitat for Humanity Ireland. Together with other monies raised this allowed for nine students from the school to travel to Cumpana, Romania on Easter Week and volunteer on housing projects for the most vulnerable of people. Sincere thanks to all.

Parish Assembly renewal

We are about to nominate members to our fifth parish assembly. This will happen at the weekend Masses next Sunday. Nomination papers will be distributed and collected at Mass. People will have an opportunity to nominate two people and one may be yourself.

We are blessed in the number of people who have served God and his people in previous assemblies. We pray that this generosity of time and talents will continue in our parish.

Remembering Dr Fehily 100 years

Captain Thomas J Fehily was the son of Patrick and Margaret Fehily, Ballineen. He studied medicine in Cork and Dublin qualifying as a doctor in 1908. He subsequently held a post at Jervis St Hospital. When he left this he worked in private practise in Wales for a short period and later at Devon.

At the outbreak of the Great War In August 1914 Dr Fehily resigned his post and joined the Royal Army Medical Corps. He entered the war in Egypt in 1915 and served at the Casualty Clearing Station in Gallipoli and France before becoming attached to the Royal Fusiliers. The Royal Fusiliers War diaries records him as a Medical Officer on 18/03/1918.

He is listed by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission as being killed on 13th April, 1918. He is commemorated on Ploegstraat Memorial near Ypres in Belgium. He was 33 years.

The Fehily Family donated a stained glass window in Enniskeane Church in his memory. It is the centre window on the south-facing transept of the church.

His younger brother Joseph Patrick Fehily, a surgeon, also served as an officer in the Royal Army Medical Corps during the Great War 1914-18. After the war he worked in Hong Kong until 1951 when he returned to Ballineen. He was honoured with the Kings Silver medal in 1935 and an OBE in 1947.

Castletown NS Reunion

Congratulations to all involved in the successful reunion of past pupils of Castletown NS which was held across last weekend. On the Friday night, locally produced film "Broken Harvest" was shown in the Hall to a receptive audience. Those who attended made a voluntary donation towards the refurbishment cost of Castletown Church. This raised €700 and it was presented to the parish during the week. Thanks to everyone involved.

The donation is timely! One of the stained glass windows — the one in the quiet room — has suffered damage in the recent storms. The storm glazing and the lower section of the window will have to be removed, have the lead redone, and be reinstalled a few weeks later. The cost is €1,580.
