Data and privacy

Data Protection is the means by which the privacy rights of individuals are safeguarded in relation to the processing of their personal data. The Data Protection Acts 1988 and 2003 and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) confer rights on individuals as well as placing responsibilities on those persons processing personal data. Naturally, the Catholic Church through its parishes and diocese, holds data on people confidentially – for example, from the moment a person is baptised the baptism is registered. The diocese and the parish are working to develop policies and practices which will ensure that it is compliant with the new laws. Updates will follow.

New Parish Assembly

The introductory meeting for members of the new parish assembly was held on Mon. There were almost 50 people present and there were apologies from a further eight people. Many thanks to all who attended, to Sr Karen who lead the meeting and to Anne Marie, Nora, Aileen and Mary who provided the tea. It was decided to do a formation half-day on Sat Sept 8th at which the assemblies priorities and groups will be decided. After this an evening meeting will be held to sort chairpersons, secretaries, etc and then the assembly will meet on a monthly basis from then on. Many thanks to all who have accepted their nominations. We pray that the new assembly will be guided by the Lord to steer our parish for the next three years of its development.

Pastoral Area Masses

As in last summer, the priests of the neighbouring parishes in our area (Bandon, Enniskeane, Kilbrittain and Murragh) have drawn up a schedule of Masses which will both allow for a summer break for each priest and ensure that each parish has Masses at the weekends and for the holy day in August. This involves a slightly reduced number of Masses in the parishes and also involves the priests circulating between the churches to offer Mass. The rota will partially apply from June 23rd and will fully apply from Sat July 7th.

The summer schedule begins for our parish on Sat July 7th. We will have two Masses from then: Sat 7.30pm at Enniskeane and Sunday 11am at Enniskeane. The normal weekend schedule will resume on Sept 1st.

Sacred Heart Novena

The Sacred Heart Novena will take place in Myross Wood from May 31st to June 8th, with two celebrations of Mass daily, at 10.00 am and 8.00 pm, and with a special Children's liturgy at 4.00 pm on Family Day, Wed 6th June. All are welcome.

Corpus Christi
