Mission Month

As we enter into this month of Mission I would like to invite you to reflect on some thoughts from St. Therese of Lisieux, Patroness of the Missions.

St. Therese might well be called the 'Missionary of everyday life'. Her maxim was simply, 'to love as Jesus loves'. From her writings we learn that she is very down to earth in her approach to life. Therese experienced in her life that it is the daily encounters with those close to us that challenge us most. Therese did not find living with others easy, no more than we do. Of the sisters in her community she said, 'One Sister attracts, another doesn't'. Therese said: 'Love consists in bearing with the faults of others, in not being surprised at their weaknesses, in being edified by the smallest act of virtue we see them practice'.

Each one of us is called to radiate love like St. Therese did, a love shown in small ways each day. Pope Francis calls this commitment to daily witness being a Missionary Disciple. In the evening of life, St. John of the Cross said 'we will be judged on love'. St. Therese wanted to 'love as Jesus loved' and we are challenged to do the same. As St. Therese was a missionary of love in her community so each one of us can be a missionary of love to the world where we live and work each day of our lives.

Archbishop Kieran O'Reilly of Cashel & Emly.
