Candles and Blessings

Fri 1st of Feb is the Feast of St. Brigid. Sat 2nd is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord and also candlemas day but we will have the blessing of candles for use at home and in church at the Masses of Sat eve and Sun.

At his Presentation in the Temple, Simeon referred to Jesus as the "light of the nations". This is why candles are blessed to mark the feast each year. It's good to have blessed candles at home to pray with, to use at the time of the visit of the priest with Holy Communion for the sick, and to use at the time of prayers for various occasions. If you bring your candles to Mass with you on Sat/Sun they will be blessed during the Mass.

Because the feast of St. Blaise falls on Sun this year, his Mass is not celebrated. However, the blessing of throats will be done at the end of Mass on Sat/Sun.
