Parish Dues / Station Offerings

The principal source of an income for priest in a parish comes from the quarterly offerings provided by parishioners. These coincide with Spring Stations, Easter, Autumn Stations and Christmas. While the number of people who contribute to these offerings is going down, the generosity of those who do contribute in this parish is very much appreciated.

The parish provides a set of four envelopes to each household in the parish every year to help with these offerings. Until now, they have been posted out. However, with the increased cost of postage, this no longer is sustainable. (The stamps alone would cost €1,200.) Instead, members of the parish assembly have kindly agreed to drop off a set of envelopes to each household in the area where they live. There may be one or two areas where we will need to post them out.

We are also keen to update our list of people who are parishioners. If you have moved to our parish in recent years, please let the parish office know so that you may receive the few items which we post.
