Parish Bulletin

Feb 24th 2019

'Whom shall I send?'

It's a phrase from the Bible — when the Lord wonders who will be a prophet, a healer, a teacher, a helper. In the New Testament, Jesus calls his disciples from among his followers to share in the work of spreading God's Good News. St. Paul, writing to the new Christian communities, reminds them that each person has a part to play. Each person is called.

Our parish continues this essential aspect of the Christian life when we continue to invite people to take an active part in the life of the parish and in service to God and his people. Many people already do this and it's one of the great blessings of our parish.

Next weekend at Mass we will be inviting people to add their own names to a short list of ministries and service roles in which we need help. At the homily time, the parish assembly will distribute a paper and pen and we'll take a minute or two for people to fill in the page. You will be asked to nominate yourself, only!

We need adults for: Adult choirs, Scripture readers, Eucharistic ministry, Collectors, Altar and flowers -- at the three churches.

Please consider the answer of the Old Testament prophet: "Here I am, Lord". Thank you.

Thought for the day
