Castletown Fundraising

The walk, cycle rally and bazaar organised by Castletown Fundraising Group raised €17,500 last year. The funds were recently presented to Donal Cashman, Chairman of Enable Ireland, in An Caipín Bar by Valerie Jennings, Treasurer, and Joe McCarthy, Chairman. The event was also attended by Enable Ireland's Fundraising Manager Maria Desmond who presented a video clip of the new Enable Ireland facility that will open in Curraheen this year. The Group would like to thank Therese Bourke for the use of her premises for the presentation. Put June 30th in your diaries for this year's walk and cycle rally. Further details will follow in due course.

Ash Wednesday

Lent begins on Wednesday with a day of prayer, fasting and abstinence.

Mass times: 10am Enniskeane; 7.30pm Castletown; 8.30pm Ahiohill.

Trócaire boxes will be distributed at Mass next weekend.

'Whom shall I send?'

It's a phrase from the Bible — when the Lord wonders who will be a prophet, a healer, a teacher, a helper. In the New Testament, Jesus calls his disciples from among his followers to share in the work of spreading God's Good News. St. Paul, writing to the new Christian communities, reminds them that each person has a part to play. Each person is called.

This weekend at Mass we will be inviting people to add their own names to a short list of ministries and service roles in which we need help. At the homily time, the parish assembly will distribute a paper and pen and we'll take a minute or two for people to fill in the page. You will be asked to nominate yourself, only!

We need adults for: Adult choirs, Scripture readers, Eucharistic ministry, Collectors, Altar and flowers -- at the three churches.

Please consider the answer of the Old Testament prophet: "Here I am, Lord". Thank you.
