Ministry & Service

Many thanks to the more than 40 people who gave a commitment to serve our parish in different ministries and services recently. We will be following up with everybody shortly.

Employability Clinic

Scannells Pharmacy will hold an information clinic in conjunction with West Cork Employability on Thurs 21st March from 4pm. The clinic will best suit those who wish to return to work but may have difficulties /disabilities, eg those returning after prolonged absences or perhaps suffering from any form of physical or mental illness (anxiety, depression, phobias) This will be a free and confidential service. For more information you may contact the pharmacy on 023 8847087

Just for Mams Well-being

This is a six week program for mams to come and talk about how it is to be a mam and how it can be so difficult at times. It is not a parenting program. There will be no pressure to speak. There is no homework. All mams that attend will be awarded with a certificate at the end. It will be held in Clonakilty in O'Donovans Hotel starting Tues 19th March from 10.00am to 12.00pm. This a free program. For more info contact Dermot Casey 086-8038792

National Learning Network

An open day will take place on Wed 20th of March. There will be overviews on all the courses from 9.30am-12.30pm with opportunities to meet instructors and students.

Those with an interest in autism and ASD are invited to attend the 'Life after Leaving Cert for the student living with ASD' seminar from 1pm. This should be of particular interest to parents, teachers and others who are supporting students on the autistic spectrum.

National Learning Network supports adults who have a health condition, injury, illness, mild or specific learning difficulty, mental health problem etc or who have been out of work for a long period. All training programmes are free, offer transport and offer continuous intake ensuring learners can start anytime. Anyone who wishes to attend should RSVP by emailing bantry@nln.ie or calling 027-51027.

The Newsletter is published and printed at the Parish Office. Priority is given to content relating to the faith community of Enniskeane Parish. Other notices may be published when space permits. These may be left at the Parochial House or emailed to parishoffice@enniskeaneparish.ie before 11am Thursday.
