Parish Ministries

All who serve in our parish as Ministers of the Word and Ministers of the Eucharist — along with the people who have recently signed up to serve — are asked to attend at Gort Mhuire, on Wed. May 29th at 8pm. This gathering will be addressed by Maura O'Flynn who will guide a reflection on these ministries.

Saving Water

The very first encyclical letter which Pope Francis wrote to all the church was about taking care of what he termed "our common home" the earth, which is God's gift. We all need to play a part in doing this Therefore we are installing water butts at our churches to collect rain water. If you are visiting a loved one's grave and watering plants there, please use this water.

Thanks to Ahiohill Tidy Towns who have installed one at Ahiohill Church. There are two at Enniskeane, one near the boiler house and a larger one beside the north door of the church. And there will be one at Castletown Church, too.
