Enniskeane Cemetery

Many thanks to all who helped prepare for and took part in our Masses this past week for all the people buried in our parish cemeteries.

Just in time for the Enniskeane Mass, we have erected a statue of St. Joseph in Enniskeane Cemetery. Many thanks to the Ross, Collins and McCarthy crew who carefully erected the 1932 statue of St. Joseph. Thanks also to Theo Cullinane and Jim McCarthy for preparatory work and finishing.

Thanks to the Presentation Sisters in Crosshaven for the statue which had stood in the grounds of the convent which is now closed. It was originally erected there in 1932. We will honour him now in Enniskeane; May St Joseph watch over our relatives and parishioners who lay beside him.

We have also commenced work in Enniskeane to extend the burial ground so that we can also keep the green space around the church. In the process, we are extending the car park between the church and school slightly.

Ordination Sunday

The new bishop of our diocese will be ordained in the North Cathedral on this Sunday June 30th. The 3.00 pm ceremony at the Cathedral will be televised live on the website of the diocese at www.corkandross.org. Mass will be concelebrated by the Apostolic Nuncio, most of the bishops of Ireland, the priests of our diocese as well as priests from Fr Fintan's home diocese of Dublin. There will also be priests from abroad. Bishop John Buckley will be the principal consecrating Bishop at the Ordination Ceremony.

All the seating at the Cathedral is already assigned but Fr. Fintan invites all the people from across the diocese wherever they may be to join with him in prayer on this Sunday afternoon.

Holy Hour

In thanksgiving for Bishop John Buckley, and to offer our prayerful support to our new Bishop Fintan Gavin, there will be a Holy Hour in Enniskeane Church at 3pm on Sunday 30th. A time for quiet prayer followed by the Rosary.

Join Ordination at Skibbereen

This Sunday at the Cathedral in Skibbereen a congregation will join in the Ordination of our next bishop which is happening in Cork. The Cork ceremony at 3pm will be relayed on a large screen to the Cathedral in Skibbereen. Everyone is welcome to go to Skibbereen and there are no tickets required.

The congregation in Skibbereen will also have the specially prepared souvenir booklet so they may join fully in all the prayers, readings and hymns. The local priests will celebrate Mass there at the same time and people will be able to receive Holy Communion.

So you can be part of this historic ceremony in prayer and without the travel to Cork.
