Noirín Ní Riain leads special event at Castletown Church

The international spiritual singer and musician is the special guest at an evening in St. Joseph's Church, Castletown Kinneigh, on Sun Sept 22nd at 7pm, when we will be treated to Sacred Sounds from the Irish Tradition.

The evening will feature Nóirín's unique singing voice and musical talents as she sings songs and hymns from the vast repertoire of the Irish / Celtic tradition in the special environment that is St. Joseph's Church. Nóirín has performed all over the world and has shared the stage with many artists.

The evening will also feature two of Cork's finest uileann pipers Rosaleen O'Leary and Mary Mitchell Ingoldsby who were both taught by the late Micheál Ó Riabhaigh. They are joined on concertina by Meadhbh O'Leary Fitzpatrick.

We hope to showcase some local talent on the night, too. Admission is free. A donation at the exit will be appreciated to offset costs. Come and enjoy.

Beidh fáilte roimh cách.

Parish Bulletin

Sept 1st 2019

Congratulations Sr, Máire Brid!

This Saturday, August 31st, 2019, is a sacred and special day for one of our parishioners, her family and our parish.

Sr Máire Bríd O'Driscoll, a native of Gortaleen in our parish, and daughter of Pat and Ina O'Driscoll, celebrates her First Profession as a member of the Redemptoristine Community in Dublin. In so doing, she becomes a full member of the Congregation (until now she has been a Novice).

Please keep Máire in prayer this week (and always) as she also prays for us. You can learn more about the community at www.rednuns.com.
