Noirín Ní Riain Concert at Castle-town Church

The international spiritual singer and musician is the special guest at an evening in St. Joseph's Church on Sun Sept 22nd at 7pm. The evening will feature Nóirín's unique singing voice and musical talents as she sings songs and hymns from the vast repertoire of the Irish / Celtic tradition. The evening will also feature two of Cork's finest uileann pipers Rosaleen O'Leary and Mary Mitchell Ingoldsby. They are joined on concertina by Meadhbh O'Leary Fitzpatrick.

We hope to showcase some local talent on the night, too. Admission is free. A donation at the exit will be appreciated to offset costs. All Welcome

Ballinacarriga Church Bicentenary

Celebrations will be held on Sunday, September 22nd next. Mass will be celebrated under the shadow of the Randal Óg Castle at 3p.m., weather permitting. Mass was celebrated at the castle prior to the building of the church in 1819. We would be delighted if you could come to this historic occasion.

Harvest Service
