Safeguarding Update

In compliance with the Catholic Church's safeguarding standards, we recently reviewed and updated our list of people who require Garda Vetting with the assistance of the parish's team of Safeguarding Representatives. There is an onerous amount of paperwork involved in this but we are very thankful to all who have been asked to apply for vetting and to complete the forms for their unquestioning cooperation. The Garda vetting only lasts for a short number of years so some people who have previously been vetted may need to apply again.

Many thanks to all who work to ensure that our parish is a welcoming, happy and safe place for young people to be involved.

Envelopes and funds

Many thanks to the people who are helping to drop off boxes of collection envelopes to people's homes. And thanks to all the households who use them regularly. They do make a big difference to our parish funds – especially as they us reclaim income tax from Revenue. (If you'd like a set of envelopes please email or call the parish office.) This envelopes also contains the four quarterly envelopes for the support of the priests. In recent days, we have also posted out the dues envelopes to households who don't use the weekly envelopes. Again, sincere thanks for your generosity. If you'd prefer, you are welcome to use the online donate button on the parish website where you can make a donation to either the parish or the priests. Ordination to Diaconate

On Sat next, Ronan Sheehan, a native of our neighbouring parish of Murragh and Templemartin, and a seminarian for our diocese, will be ordained a deacon by Bishop Fintan Gavin at the Cathedral in Cork. For Ronan, being ordained a deacon brings him very close to being ordained a priest of our diocese which we pray will happen next year. Please remember Ronan in prayer as he prepares for this special day.

We also pray that others may follow the Lord's call to discipleship as priests in our diocese.

Wedding plans

Couples planning to get married in church have four essential steps to take:-
-- a recommended pre-marriage course (they're online now at www.accord.ie)
– give at least three months notice to the civil registrar (<https://www2.hse.ie/births-deaths-and-marriages/>)
-- each person meets the priest of the parish you are living in at the time of the marriage to complete church pre-marriage papers at least two months before the wedding date
– meet the priest who is celebrating the Marriage ceremony with you to plan the ceremony (before you make any decisions about printing, music etc)
Attendees: At this time the governments Covid plan restricts the number of guests at a wedding to 100. (Due to change in late Oct.)

Gougane Sunday

The annual pilgrimage in honour of St. Finbarr will take place on Sunday 26th September in Gougane Barra.

Rosary will be recited at 2:30pm and Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Fintan Gavin at 3pm. The homily will be preached by Fr. John Heinhold CC, Bantry.

People attending are asked to follow current government guidance in relation to social distancing between household groups and wearing of face coverings.
