Honan nominated for award

The recently restored Honan Chapel, UCC, has been shortlisted for the prestigious RIAI (Royal Institute of the Architects of Ireland) Public Vote Award 2022.

The nomination recognises the recent conservation work.

The winner is decided by public vote and it would be a tremendous honour for the chapel and the university if it were to win this competition.

You can vote for the Public Choice Award here: <https://www.riai.ie/public-choice-award-poll/>

Local Ordination

Bishop Fintan has announced that the Ordination to the Priesthood of Ronan Sheehan will be celebrated in the Church of St. John the Baptist, Newcestown, on Sunday 18th September at 3pm.

This will be a wonderful occasion for our diocese and for our neighbours in Ronan's home parish.

Peter's Pence Collection

The Peter's Pence collection is sent to Rome. It is used by the pope to support special charitable projects in developing countries as well as defraying expenses of the work of the Church.

It's taken up as a second collection next weekend.

National Synod meeting

Delegates from the 26 dioceses of Ireland; Religious Congregations; representatives from other Catholic groups and lay associations; members of the clergy; members of the Synodal Pathway Steering Committee and Task Group will attend a meeting in Athlone this weekend to prepare the national submission to be sent to the Holy See ahead of the 2023 synod.

In March 2021 the Irish Bishops' Conference announced a synodal pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland, leading to the organisation of a national synodal assembly. A five year time-line is envisaged for this work.

The initial two-year phase coincides with the Universal Synod on Synodality announced by Pope Francis and taking place from 2021-2023 and so the listening
