Weekly Envelopes

Many thanks to all the parishioner who use the weekly numbered envelopes for the church collections. The new sets for the next year have been ordered and come into use in October. To avoid waste we are changing numbers so that we need to order less. When your new set arrives, it may have a new number for you.

It is also a good time for anyone who has not been receiving a set of envelopes to request one now. Those that have been donating online can also request an envelope number. Please contact the parish office and a number and envelopes will be assigned to you confidentially.

What envelopes do

Many of the people who use the envelopes and have someone in the home who pays income tax allow the parish to reclaim some of the tax from the government. This has been really helpful in the parish over the past few years to help with building works. The form for this is available from the enniskeaneparish.ie or the Parish Office.

Parishioners who go to Mass in another parish but use our envelope in the collections there are still helping our parish as these envelopes are regularly returned to us.
