recently presented a cheque for €30,000 to Enable Ireland, represented by Donal Cashman, former Chairman, Maria Desmond, Siobhan Green and Alicia Waugh. The special guest was Therese Clarke, mother to Enable Ireland service user Adam. Without community support it would not be possible to raise such a substantial sum for Enable Ireland, and your continued support is invaluable to the group. The night celebrated the group's largest presentation of funds to Enable Ireland to date. A sing along started with Tim Foley and continued with contributions from many wonderful singers and storytellers in the room. A pleasant evening drew to a close after Seamus Crowley led the attendance with his fitting rendition of Amhrán na bhFiann.
